If you have been a victim of a crime and have to give evidence at court, or if you want to observe the court case, help and support are available.

Volunteers from the Victim Support Service can:

- meet with you before the court case to help you understand how courts operate
- show you around the court beforehand so you become familiar with where you have to go on the day of the court case
- talk to you about any concerns you have about going to court
- show you where the facilities for witnesses and victims of crime are at the court, eg distressed witness rooms, special care rooms, victim support rooms
- be with you in court or while you are waiting to give evidence, and spend some time with you after court
- give you information about other services available to victims of crime
- refer you to the counsellors at the Victim Support Service
- help you with information about your victim impact statement
- give you information about how to claim witness fees and information about criminal injuries compensation
- arrange an interpreter, if necessary.
